Program: Peter Langenhorst, Chevrolet Zone Manager, will give us a brief update on General Motors.

Tony Argote was born and raised in Miami, FL and is a graduate of the Georgia Institute of Technology. He currently is a Performance Integration Engineer for Charging and Fuel Systems on the Chevrolet Volt, as well as the 'A World In Motion' Program Manager for GM. AWIM is a program where Engineers volunteer in Elementary and Middle Schools to get students excited about math and science. In addition to his responsibilities at GM, Argote is a member of the Board of Directors for Green Place Detroit, a 501(c)3 non-profit that's focused on changing Detroit through a student mentorship program focused on building sustainable housing out of repurposed shipping containers.

Volt Presentation Description:

He will discuss Volt developments & innovations, elements of customer focused design in the charging system, the importance of inter-disciplinary teamwork, and the continued need for automotive engineers with a future vision of vehicle electrification.

We Are guests of Sands Chevrolet at Surprise. Two years ago we were guests of Sands Chevrolet for their "Grand Opening Celebration". If you were not able to attend, you need to take this opportunity to tour this outstanding Dealership which reflects the Sands Family's Confidence in Chevrolet Products and since the Sands Dealership have been around for over 75 years you will be able to see Vintage Cars from the Sands Collection as well as the great Chevrolet Products for 2001. Join us for this very nice event to show your strong support for Sands and for Chevrolet
